The image contains a scatter plot with the x-axis labeled 'cement' and the y-axis labeled 'target'. The Pearson correlation coefficient is indicated as 0.498. The data points are distributed across the plot, indicating a moderate positive correlation between cement and target values.